- (4) The city covenants and agrees that it will, notwithstanding that this Non-Disclosure Agreement or the foregoing source selection process or administration phases may have terminated or expired, keep in confidence, and prevent the disclosure to any person or persons outside its organization or to any unauthorized person or persons, any and all information which is received from the offerors under this Non-Disclosure Agreement and that has been protected in accordance with paragraphs 2 and 3 hereof, provided however, that the city shall not be liable for disclosure of any such information if the same:
- A. Was in the public domain at the time it was disclosed, or

 - C. Is disclosed with the written approval of the other party, or
 - D. Is disclosed after three years from receipt of the information, or

As between the parties hereto, the provisions of this Paragraph 4 shall supersede the provisions of any inconsistent legend that may be affixed to said data by the disclosing party, and the inconsistent provisions of any such legend shall be without any force or effect. Any protected information provided by one party to the other shall be used only in furtherance of the purposes described in the foregoing source selection process or administration phases, and shall be, upon request at any time, returned to the disclosing party. If either party loses or makes unauthorized disclosure of the other party's protected information, it shall notify such other party immediately and take all steps reasonable and necessary to retrieve the lost or improperly disclosed information.

- (5) The standard of care for protecting Proprietary Information imposed on the city will be that degree of care the city uses to prevent disclosure, publication or dissemination of its own proprietary information.
- (6) The city shall not be liable for the inadvertent or accidental disclosure of Proprietary Information if such disclosure occurs despite the exercise of the same degree of care as the city normally takes to preserve its own such data or information.
- (7) In providing any information hereunder, the offeror makes no representations, either express or implied, as to the information's adequacy, sufficiency, or freedom from defect of any kind, including freedom from any patent infringement that may result from the use of such information, nor shall the offeror incur any liability or obligation whatsoever by reason of such information, except as provided under Paragraph 4, hereof.
- (8) Notwithstanding the termination or expiration of the foregoing source selection process or administration phases of the project, the obligations of the city with respect to proprietary information shall continue to be governed by this Non-Disclosure Agreement.
- (9) This Non-Disclosure Agreement contains the entire agreement relative to the protection of information to be exchanged hereunder, and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous oral or written understandings or arguments regarding this issue. This Non-Disclosure Agreement shall not be modified or amended, except in a written instrument executed by the parties.
